THE SEMI-WEEKLY EDITION Is published every Wednesday and Saturday, and during the session of the Legislature, three times a week, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at Four Dotlars a year, payable always in advance.

THE WEEKLY EDITION Is published every Thursday, at Two Dollars a year, always to be paid in advance.

$1 in advance will pay for six months.

$5 will pay for three copies one year. * Persons remitting $10 in advance, free of postage, shall have three copies of the Semi-Weekly one year. $2 will pay for six months. $1 will always be charged for the Tri-Weekly, and 50 cents for the Weekly, during the Legislative sessions.

ADVERTISEMENTS, will be inserted three times at one dollar a square of 8 lines, and be continued at the rate of 25 cents a square for each additional insertion. Quarterly advertisements, per square, 85. All advertisements from abroad must be accompanied by the eash; or no attention will be paid to them. Postage must be paid.

STATE SENTINEL---WEEKLY.

will continue their subscriptions, and aid us deavor to repay them by increased energy, the door-way, shrank back in terror behind the heels water, in case of emergency; while the other, of the washington a paper to be styled "THE UNION."

We approach the "Gl be," we propose publication to the washington a paper to be styled "THE UNION."

We approach the task before us with a deep sentence. enterprise and improvement. Our ambition of the Alleghanian. has chiefly been to establish at the Capital of Indiana, a newspaper of a respectable and useful character. We may have fallen short fight always lies deep down in our Alleghanian dogs; the train had fairly passed him-and then jumped up, federated and wide-spread republic. in our aim, but we have done all that our means would permit to accomplish it.

The people generally, and particularly the Demission of the control of the people generally, and particularly the Demission of the control of the people generally, and particularly the Demission of the control of the people generally and particularly the Demission of the control of the people generally, and particularly the Demission of the control of the people generally, and particularly the Demission of the people generally and unconstitution of the control of the people generally and unconstitution of the people generally and unconstitution of the control of the people generally and unconstitution of the people generally and unconst ocratic party, its eminent members especially, ought to feel some interest in this matter, there's the bar room for your talk,' said John Bull,

To Advertisers.

It will be of interest to our subscribers, ging advertisers and the public generally, to know that all advertisements for the Semi-Weekly, mister? will appear at least once in the Weekly | What does he drink, then ?' Sentinel. This gives them a larger circulation than can be obtained in any other paper sarce. You may look, mister, but I tell you, pepper vouring element .- Boston Traveler. in the State.

A Mouthful of Pickled Dog.

A long-limbed, wiry-made countryman of the real Alleghanian breed, determined the other day to have the gentleman in the bar to furnish me with these fices without charge : a full view of Niagara before emigrating from Western New York to Wisconsin, whither 'his folks' were all bound. Having partly satisfied his curiosi- at a monthful. ty on Goat Island, he crossed to the Canada side, and falls, asking "if they couldn't give a fellow something to eat."

"Where do you come from, my friend," said an Englishman who sat smoking a cigar upon the piazza, and who thought he saw in our friend a fit subject for a quiz.

'Where do I come from, mister! why from a good way long off, if you only knowed it; and that is clean where I'm to home.'

'The folks of the Alleghany !' said the other; 'then I suppose, my friend, you are a true specimen of what your countrymen call an out-and-out United Stateser, a real live Alleghanian and no mistake."

I never heard afore of such a critter as an Alleghanian; but I tell ye, mister, I come from just among the spurs of the mountains, the raal sprouts of the old back-bone; and if Alleghanian means the raal prickly grit of Ameriky, I am just some of that game-I am. A true Alleghanian boulder, by gosh; and I terrier, with a fierce growl, sprang past him full at it-I do.

I did not mean to annoy you, my friend,' said the Englishman soothingly, I only wished to ask you fairly fastened upon his neck. The yelp of Hank lieve, the route is not extended. about that dog of yours : He looks to me like an Indian dog; and hearing you ask for some refresh- vere bite, but the next moment saw the latter rements, suggested the inquiry whether or not that was bounding against his master's legs and working his the kind of dog they eat in the Seneca nation, near slavering jaws, as if trying to disengage a swarm of money free of postage to publishers of newspapers in their support. If we fail in an enterprize that might almost sent its measures, abuse its appointmen's, and pull down the which it seems you have resided !

*Eat Hauk !-eat my dog Hauk ! I'd like to see man or hound, mister, that would dare to put a tooth in him." 'Why, my good fellow,' replied John Bull, whose sporting sensibilities were so roused by this remark that he instantly forgot his waggery, - why I have a Full-terrier here in the yard that would eat him up at a mouthful. I said he looked like no Indian dog; but in truth, when I come to examine him, he is nothing but what we would call in England a miserable

'I tell ye, mister, if Hank be a cur, he is nevertheless a raal Alleghanian cur, as you call it, and such a cur will lick five times his weight in English bull-

Why he has no scars about him to show that he is a fighter, said the Englishman, curiously examining the dog's head and ears.

'Shall I tell you why, mister ?

*Because Alleghanian dogs is a kind of critter that gives scars instead of taking them.' 'Aha! that's it, is it!' said the Englishman, drily. Well; my Alleghanian friend, I will bet you this golden sovereign against a silver dollar, that my bull terrier will shake that Alleghanian cur of yours to pieces in less than five minutes, by my watch-in short, will make a single mouthful of him.'

an, scratching his head. But you see, mister, Hank peace, and the manner in which it was disposed of, Drop letters, (not mailed,) ain't had his vittles to-day, no more than his master, which occurred early last week; and I was still more and it isn't in flesh and blood to do its best at fighting, on an empty stomach.

have a fight afterwards. piece, I don't know that I altogether like that, some- reporters, all overt acts of whatever nature. to planking down my silver shiner on that yellow how; we don't see much gold our way, and that so- Knowing your expressed wishes, to have all com- Pamphlets, magazines, and periodicals, any distance

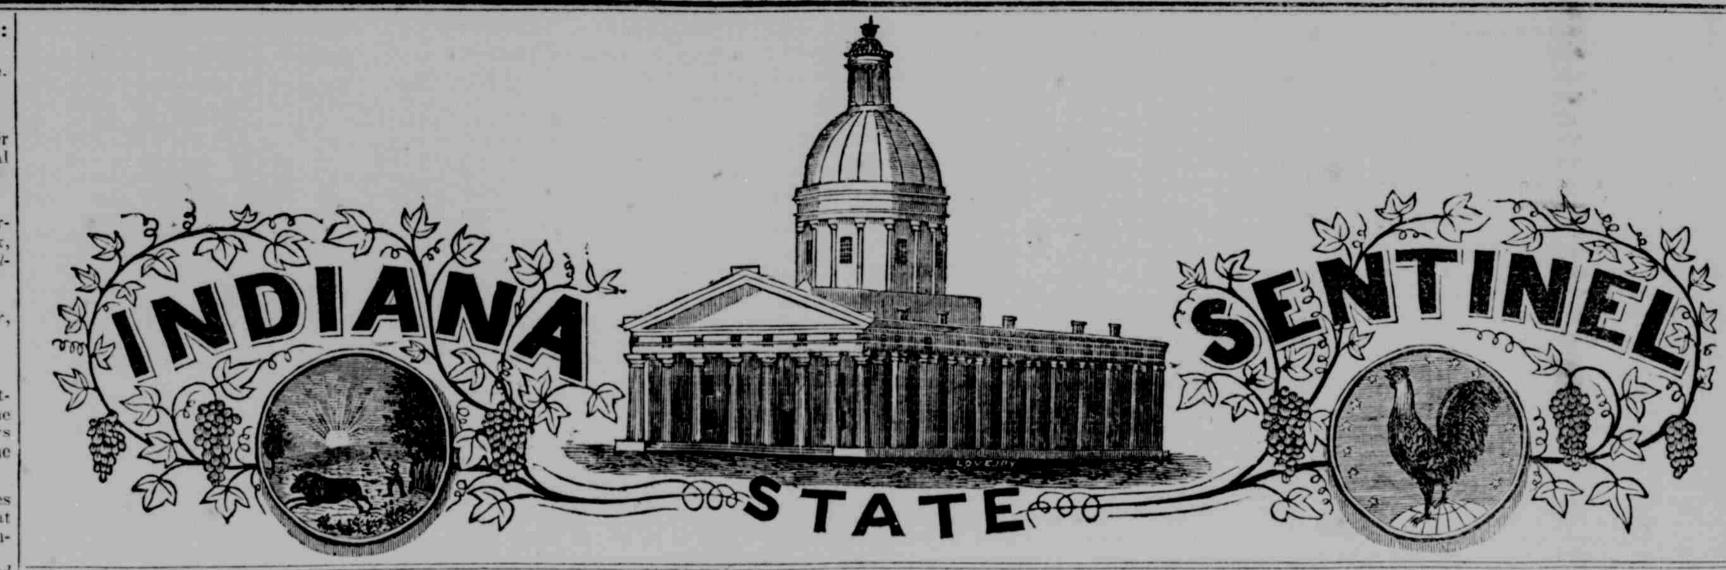

vereign, as you call it, looks to me for all the world munications short and to the point, I will commence for one ounce or less, each copy, only like a brass Indian medal.'contemptuously. 'You repudiate, perhaps, all you the person arrested, noticed in your article, and if so, have said in his praise; in a word, you back out! why has not the magistrate made us acquainted with from my natur. I tell'd you I were a boulder-a raal to explanations. [They always are.-Ens.] Alleghanian boulder-and I am. But I want to fix 2d. Why was the drunkard who, in mid-day, atthings in a Christian like manner, and not rob folks tempted to violate the person of a respectable lady in of their money on the highway, as it were.' How then, shall we make up the match, my good the aforesaid officer when arrested by the marshal, Cincinnati via Brankeille-Arrives Tuesdays, Thursdays fellow !" said the Englishman, not unkindly. simplicity, if you and your bull-terrier want so much | fearlessly and impartially, from any cause; or has he to get a fight out of Hauk and me, why can't you go reasons satisfactory to himself for pursuing a course Southern via Madison-Arrives Tuesdays, Thursdays and tell the gentlemen who keeps the tavern-whom | which fills the whole community with surprise, astonyou know and I don't know-why can't you tell the | ishment and regret ! gentleman to give me and Hauk a raal good dinner, with something good for a fellow to drink, and then took pride in supporting until he has reached his pre- Mossovia-Arrives Tuesdays and Saturdays let the dogs fight afterwards, to decide which of us is sent elevated position, is subservient to the wishes to pay the shot. Why can't you do that, I say, if you and opinions of individuals instead of the public at are so tearing mad to have a fight that you will risk large !

your gold upon it ?" at the Alleghanian's notions of what constituted a ed by reasons, will cause his honor some trouble. fair bet; for the proposed arrangement left John Ball nothing to win, whatever might be the result of the as quick as you please, for I have to be going."

Indianapolis, June 25, 1845.]

SEMI-WEEKLY.

[Volume Innum Number 7

We hope our friends throughout the State ment a stout, tan-colored, compactly built, and vigor- while walking on the Railroad bridge, near Northey's ous looking dog, with tusks like those of a wild boar | Point, a few days since, he was interested in watching | protruding from his black muzzle, roused himself the movements of three dogs, playing together on the as much as they can in obtaining new ones. from under the bench on which his master was sit- track while the cars were approaching at full speed. Grateful for such favors, we shall always en- ting. He gave a low, muffled growl as he rose, while Two of them, of the Newfoundland species, jumped to quoth the Englishman, pettishly.

'Well, there's water in the horse trough, and the bell rings."-Nalam Gazette. and we trust will do all in their power to aid utterly confounded by what he now cursed, inwardly, as the cool impudence of the United Stateser, who of canine sagacity occurred in connection with the as the cool impudence of the United Stateser, who of canine sagacity occurred to company selected for the Eastern World. We have only to realize them in our own history, and in their power to aid utterly confounded by what he now cursed, inwardly, should be moderate in itself, and sufficient to raise adequate the happiness of our people, to spread the name of liberty that, and instructed the happiness of our people, to spread the name of the the Academy here only to perpetuate the Eastern World the Eastern Wo had swindled him out of a dinner in the name of a fire in Crescent place, which deserves to be recorded. these blessings by preserving the sacred Union of our We are, therefore, in favor of the most enlightened system vey. My impressions are, that his services as a scientific gentlemass dog that would not stand up even to receive a flog- Mr. H. D. Huston, who resided in a house directly in States, and there is no assignable limit to the processor Rogers, the principal of sarce is the dog's drink. I see that gentleman in the bar has lots of bottles of it on an upper shelf, and if conveniences, I'll soon show you whether that British bull terrier of your'n can eat up an Alleghanian cur | Piketon

Give the fellow the bottles, the pail, and the back soon after presented himself at the hotel near the room, roared John Bull through the open window; 'give bim whatever he wants and put the whole in my Cumberland bill; I'm determined to hold the knave to his original New Bethel agreement, in some way or other."

Within the next five minutes, the Alleghanian had Augusta shut himself in the room communicating with the bar, emptied the pepper sauce into the pail, and placing Hampton his dog hank therein, saturated thoroughly his shaggy coat with the pungent mixture. The Englishman, from the Forks of the Alleghany, near down along- all impatient, meanwhile stepped into the bar-room, Danville side the Seneca nation, in York State, is my place followed by the bull-terrier, when suddenly the inner New Winchester door was flung open, and there stood the Alleghanian, Brownsburg gesticulating with one hand, while he held Hank with Springtown

> 'Bring on your dog!' he shouted-bring on your British bull-terrier that is going to eat us up !-bring him on, I say, and let's see if an Alleghanian cur isn't more than a monthful for him.'

'Sext—sext—seize him!' hissed John Bull between his teeth, at the same time clapping his hands and striding rapidly towards the inner door, while his bullproved, indeed, that the bull-terrier did give one sehornets that had lodged upon his palate.

'You confounded scoundrel!' roared the English- regulation is substituted: man, 'what poison have you put on the hair of your Money may be left with the postmaster, in no instance Of one thing we may confidently assure the public-we hereafter as vigorously as the ed tor of this paper has done to order supper and a bed for me, and to-morrow, ar- ceipt, deducting one per cent; which receipt, after being by the benefits which it showers around it, within certain the last election. Such was the manner in which James K. down or so, to decide which shall pay for them.'

cene, having probably already had enough of a raal Alleghanian boulder.

Keeping the Peace.

Messrs, Charmans: I was much pleased to see Wal, wal-that's all fair,' replied the Alleghani- that you called public attention to a breach of the If over 300 miles, pleased at the gentlemanly and prudent manner in I will order your dog to be fed, then. You can, which you treated it. It is always best to be calm on meanwhile, be eating your own dinner, and we'll subjects like these, and give all parties a chance to be heard. You will also allow me to commend your 'That's all fair, that's all fair, too; but, mister, as excellent system of bringing to notice, through your All sizes over 1,900 square inches, postage same as 'You won't bet on your cur then,' said John Bull, 1st. If there was any reason for the discharge of Back out, mister! Nothin' on airth is further it! I, for one, understand your columns to be open one of the most public streets in town, discharged by and many witnesses at hand? "Why, now," replied the Alleghanian, with great 3d. Is the said magistrate afraid to do his duty Ciscissati via Lawrenceburgh-Arrives Sundays, Wed-

4th. Is it possible that one whom the mechanics

These may seem harsh questions; but Messrs. Ed- DASSILLE, III.—Arrives Tuesdays, Thursdays and Satur-The Englishman could not help laughing heartily liters, there are rumors affoat which, if not contradict-A LAYMAN.

fight, except the possible satisfaction of seeing the The Albany Argus contains the following remarka- Greenwille, O. via Winchester-Arrives Tuesdays and countryman's poor cur receive a drubbing from his ble recent invention by an English mechanic: For bull-terrier. Diverted however, with such an origi- ages past quicksilver commonly known as mercury, nal, he instantly ordered the tavern-keeper to give the has become the only coating for mirrors. A coating Alleghanian whatever he might want for himself and of silver is now substituted. It is well known that his dog, adding that he would be responsible for the the working in Mercury is extremely poisonous. The use of silver renders it a perfectly healthy trade, while . Wal, I guess I'm all ready,' said our Allegnanian the mirrors are said to exceed in the beauty and powfriend, about half an hour afterwards, as he stepped er of reflection, those finished with quicksilver. This out on the piazza, smacking his lips, and wiping his discovery is of the utmost importance, that it is said mouth with his shirt sleeve; 'I guess I'm ready, mis- the Rotchschilds who work the great quicksilver ter, and you may bring along that bull-pup of your'n mines of Mexico, have offered $450,000 for the suppression of the discovery.

'Here he is,' said John Bull, and in the same mo- | CANINE SAGACITY. - A friend informs us, that, the side of the bridge, ready for a spring into the water, in case of emergency; while the other, of the terrier breed, ran up the track, hoping to out run the terrier breed to be stablishment of the indomitable spirit of our friends, or their final propose publishing at the described the indomitable spirit of our friends, or their final propose publishing at the described track of the described tracks and former for Why, your dog has no fight in him, my good sir? engine. Looking-around, and finding he was likely out much diffidence of our qualifications. We have some Republican Parry, and the pledges to that end under which them some of the te timentals which they have received of Mr. Me-Don't be too sure of that, replied the other; the between the ralls—hugging close to the ground, till between the ralls—hugging close to the ground, till limited and less conspicuous than the metropolis of our con-

Drink from a horse-trough!' cried the Alleghani- menced, was awakened about 3 o'clock, by his dog, cend in the scale of nations. We have already wrought with all the great and various interests of the Union without survey was made." an disdainfully. 'Hank isn't that kind of a critter, who jumped upon his master's bed and began to lick prejudices, and to attract the curiosity, if not the admiration wherein a just and equal system of revenue may be intro-

he will only let me have a couple of 'em, with that Free Post Offices for the State Sentinel. pail, in that back room, so as I can talk to Hauk After the first day of July, under the new postage law, land which they have redeemed from the wilderness; the erament; and to be levied in such manner as to equalize, as Boone County.

Morgan County.

Hancock County.

Marion County. Lebanon Thornleysville Allisonville Royalton Jamestown Eagle Village Northfield Mooresville Bridgeport Monrovia Hendricks County. Greenfield Sugar Creek

Charlottsville Philadelphia Eden Johnson County. Greenwood Franklin North Salem Far West Hamilton County. Shelley County. Pleasant View Shelbyville Morristown

Manwaring" "Manwaring.-There may be some question as to this office. It is much less than thirty miles direct from Indisnapolis; but by the mail route, via Shelbyville, the country, that we are about to creet our tent, for the respon- These important questions once adjusted, and the tariff INDIANAPOLIS FEMALE INSTITUTE. unly want to see the man that has a word to say agin the threat of poor Hauk. The Alleghanian had released his own hold upon the dog, and it seemed as if ing the mail for that office to Shelbyville, and thence have undertaken. But we at least bring to the task a spirit never. The danger can never be over, so long as we have a all must be over with him if those voracious jaws once back towards Indianapolis, over a road on which, we be- that is devoted to Lineary, to Union, and to our Country; party to contend with like the federal whigh-a party which exceeding ten dollars, for the purpose of being paid to approach the task with the deepest reverence for the true for more than forty years. With such an opposition we 'Wal, mister,' quoth the Alleghanian, cooly, I rayther guess that Hauk was in such an all-fired passion any newspaper or pamphlet deliverable from his office.

How Subscriptions may be paid.

THE undersigned, agents for the AMERICAN PORTABLE to with a determined spirit to resist them—to expose their for a fight, the pepper-same he drank jist now must. The postmaster may retain one per cent, and give his rehave sweated through. At any rate your bull pup ceipt for the balance. He is immediately to report the constitution, we are indeed struck with its novelty and to balle the election of their leaders. We shall attempt to ship the same to Pittsburgh wake or storage on commission either payment, with the names of the parttes, to the postmas- beauty. We see in it an attempt to ascertain how far pow- discharge this duty, we hope, under a due sense of the digniseems to have had enough of pickled dog at one ter through whom said amount is to be paid to the parties. We shall be willing to cope with our ad- fered, by this line through to Philadelphia and Baltimore, in as short a lisher, and to charge himself upon his "general account prevent an excessive concentration, and consequent abuse of versaries, not in personal abuse, but with fair argument in fine and at a little lower rates than any other agency in the place 'You scoundrel, you!' thundered the indignant with the United States," with the amount received, deself, and punish you well for the villainous trick.' for subscriptions " stating the name of the payor, and from Cars to united. We hold that this government was principally to watch over united. We hold that this government was principally to watch over united. The repeat government was principally to watch over united. Now don't use sich ugly words, mister; I'm a name of the payee, office where payable, amount, and our foreign relations; that of the States was particularly to receipt the states was particularly to receive the states was particularly to receipt the states was particularly to receive the st boulder; I'm one of 'em, I'll tell ye, and no mistake; time when received, and shall make a full and faithful take care of our internal concerns. a real Alleghanian boulder. But if you want, right return to the general post office of all such cases at the The federal government should have a lequate powers to man, however distinguished by ability or services, should lead to us at Madison, we will forward their goods to all in airnest, to get a fight of me, all you have to do, is the office where payable, is to pay the amount in said reter breakfast, you and I will try a friendly knock endorsed by the publisher, he will forward as his vouch- prescribed limits-leaving the great mass of local matters to Polk has been called from his retirement, and such is the exer of payment. He will enter said amount to his credit on his "general account with the United States," under and more properly regulate them. Keeping this general dis-The crowd, which had meanwhile collected around on his "general account with the United States," under and more properly regulate them. Keeping this general disthe door of the tavern, shouted with laughter at this the head of "moneys paid for subscriptions;" giving the tinction in view, the constitution has marked down the time ery good man wished, and which every honest patriot will arrive at Madison the evening of the same day. This line offers evening the tinction in view, the constitution has marked down the time. proposition, while John Bull hastily retired from the particulars above stated, and render to the General Post its of the federal power, and it should be the duty of its au-

New Rates of Postage. Single letters or any number of pieces not exceeding half an ounce, 300 miles or less, For each additional half ounce or part thereof, add single postage thereto.

ON NEWSPAPERS. Newspapers of 1,900 square inches or less, sent by Editors or Publishers, from their offices of publication, any distance not exceeding 30 miles, Over 30 miles and not exceeding 100,

Over 100 miles and out of the State, ON PAMPHLETA, &c. Each additional ounce or fractional part thereof,

ON CIRCULARS. Quarto post, single cap, or paper not larger than single cap, folded, directed, and unsealed, for every

INDIANAPOLIS POST OFFICE. Arrivals and Departures of the Mails. Eastans-Arrives daily at - - - -

Closes daily -Closes Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays nesdays and Fridays Closes on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and Saturdays Closes on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays LEAVENWORTH via Bloomington - Arrives Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays Closes Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays Closes Mondays and Fridays WESTERS via Terre Haute-Arrives daily, except Sundays Closes daily, except Saturdays MONTEZUMA-Arrives Tuesdays and Saturdays Closes Wednesdays and Saturdays Closes on Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays LAFAVETTE VIA Lebanon - Arrives Saturdays Closes Wednesdays NORTHERN VIA Logansport - Arrives Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays -Saturdays

Indianapolis, April 1, 1845. SAMUEL HENDERSON, P. M. MOROCCO BOOTS. UST received at the Pashionable Hat & Shoe Store, 6 cases Gent. Morocco Boots latest spring style.

Closes Sundays and Thursdays

PENDLETON-Arrives Wednesdays -

4 " Seal Very low for cash. Ladies' Fine Kid Slips and Ties.

MIIS day received at the Fashionable Shoe & Hat Store and for he insisted on bringing back the Tariff System to its legitisale low at wholesale and retail. J. E. SHARPE. | mate revenue uses.

PROSPECTUS For publishing at Washington, a new-paper, to be called "The Union." TO THE PUBLIC.

Having purchased from Messrs Blair and Rives the whole establishment of the "Gl be," we propose publishing at to be overtaken, he prostrated himself at full length, acquaintance, indeed, with the duties of an editor of a news- he was elected. He takes the Jeffersonian Era for his Kinney's standing as a Teacher:

like these dogs, be ready to "clear the track, when whole human race; and where are they spread out on so disgraced the statute book in 1842. large a field of action, or illustrated by so many brilliant We shall contend against an unjust and an unequal tariff. examples, as in these United States, front of the carpenter's shop in which we may as- of the treasury-"a system adjusted on a scale consonant that company, and the State authorities, under whose direction the his eyes; on opening them, Mr. Huston found the of Europe. We have displayed the benefits of Liverry duced in order to silence complaint, and to equalize the bless-What does he drink, then?'

What does he drink, then?'

The strict ment purity of character. He has had considerable experience and Union in a series of phenomena which are almost calculated to surprise ourselves. What can be more remarkable, and the burdens of government. Such, we are satisfactly time to save himself and family from the description of the President's late admirable in the present day, than the spirit of enterprize and considerable experience and Union in a series of phenomena which are almost calculated to surprise ourselves. What can be more remarkable, and the burdens of government. Such, we are satisfact to surprise ourselves. What can be more remarkable, and the burdens of government. Such, we are satisfact to surprise ourselves. What can be more remarkable, and the burdens of government. Such, we are satisfact to surprise ourselves. What can be more remarkable, as a teacher, and has made extensive acquisitions in science and Classical Literature. Having been one of my assistants on the Geological government.—Boston Traveler. they are erecting; the canals which they have executed; of the late English journals. It looks to a revenue standard and of the clearness of his intellect. I know no person more likely, the more than 4,000 miles of railway which they have conalone, while he drinks,-I say, if you will only tell the State Sentinel will be delivered at the following of. towns which they have strewn over the West; the multi- far as practicable, the public burdens upon all classes and plication of our people from three to twenty millions of sections. souls ; the augmentation of the number of our States from We shall deem it our solemn duty to respect those essen- Academy at this place, and the Trustees were well sengthed with the thirteen to twenty-nine, including the three new States of tial compromises in the constitution which secured its adop- manner in which he discharged his duties. We with much pleasure Florida, Iowa and Texas, which, as we write, we hope are tion. These were "the result of a spirit of amity, and of bear testimony to his high moral standing, as well as to his competer now probably starting into existence?

"Westward the course of empire takes its way; The four first acts already past, A fifth shall close the drama with the day, Time's noblest offspring is the last."

possess, and which were never dreamed of, more than a hun- ate some alarm about the Union itself. dred years since, by the philosophic author of these beauti- We pledge ourselves likewise to sustain the administra- pal of the Academy at Lebanon, Pennsylvania, and more recently en-

We live, too, in an extraordinary age. Improvement But other subjects now call upon our attention; and at Primary Department (Reading, Wraing, and Spelling,) midst of such an age, and at the metropolis of this great spare no exertions to remove them. tutions. We almost shrink back from the enterprise we expect more tranquillity in our party relations-but peace, a heart that is proud of the name of AMERICAN; some little is actuated by such false principles, which is so strong in it- A PAIR of gold framed spectacles, blue glasses. They were supexperience in our business; a zeal that nothing can subdue, self, so ably organized, so closely cemented together, so idol- A posed to be lost between the paper mill and Carlisle's mill, on or and an industry that fears no labor. With these feelings, attously attached to its leaders, and so fatally impelled by near the right bank of the branch canal. Whoever has found the we come to throw ourselves upon the liberality of our coun-The authority heretofore given to postmasters to send tiymen. We trust that we shall receive, if we deserve, now preparing to attack the ADMINISTRATION, to misreprepayment of subscriptions being withdrawn, the following appal the stoutest spirit, they will at least be liberal enough neguences party, in order that they may rise upon its to ascribe it to the want of power, and not of will-to the runs head that guides us, and not to the heart that impels us, Office a full and faithful account of the same at the end thorities religiously to preserve them. Dissolution on the not interpolate any powers by a forced or factitious construc- terests of our country. tion, without producing some opposition from the parties to the compact, or some remonstrance from the people.

the federal head, over the local interests of the several parts. has paid to his pure republican principles, his distinguished the federal head, over the local interests of the several parts. has paid to his pure republican principles, his distinguished Our country covers an extensive empire. It embraces a integrity and at ility, by zealously devoting himself to her years manufacturer of the celebrated Bartlett Cards, would ingreat variety of climates and soils, of occupations and of in- service. He is anxious to do all the good which he can ac- form the public and the patrons of the old establishment, No. 71, terests. The obvious danger of too much federal legislation complish in the course of his administration, and we are de- Fulton street, where he has always been employed, that he continues is, of course, that it may affect these interests in a very un- sirous of co-operating with him, with inferior means, and an the manufacture of all the varieties of Physing, Visiting, and Blank equal degree. Whilst it seeks to administer benefits to one humbler sphere, in the same patriotic object. section, it may impose burdens upon another. Nor does the "UNION" will not, however, be exclusively confined cation to his sole agents, Messrs. Ely & Latham, No. 71, Fulton st. mischief terminate here. Inequality produces complaint, to politics. We shall embrace within our design the great at the following prices, usual discount off for cash, or to those who The suffering States become dissatisfied. One section not interests and improvements of the States, occasional excur- buy to sell again viz: only murmurs about the partiality shown to another, but sions into the field of literature and science, and, in fine, all Eagles of Star, Chain and Dot, Wave, Diamond, Marble and White against the government which commits it. The Union itself such matters as enter into the miscellaneous contents of a is less respected, because of the injustice which it displays. newspaper, whenever we can find sufficient space to intro-The only way of preventing these injuries and these com- duce them to our readers. Our position at Washington will plaints is, to administer the government within the limita- enable us to collect information from a correspondence with tions of the instrument, and in a spirit which is calculated the enlightened agents of our government abroad, and to reto equalize, as far as possible, its benefits and its burdens port the condition of distant countries, through the accomamongst the whole Union. In no other way can we prevent | plished officers of our naval squadrons. We shall not fail the federal government from rushing into schemes of consol- to avail ourselves of these and other favorable opportunities | scale; idation, or the States into a tendency towards dissolution. to improve our columns, and to inform our readers. If we permit the FEDERAL GOVERNMENT systematically to We shall launch our back in a few days, and commit it to No. 15, Enamelled, 7 P. M. adopt any rule of construction, which may enlarge its pow- the liberal spirit of an enlightened country. ers at the expense of the States, or of the people-if Congress may adopt any measure which they may fancy to be Daily paper by the year, in advance "necessary and proper," then power may be so augmented " " for less than a year, 51 per month. as, in the progress of time, to amount to consolidation. Then, Semi-Weekly paper by the year, in advance we must extend the executive department to carry out these extended powers, then, as one of the celebrated resolutions of one of the first States in the Union showed in '99, we | Weekly paper by the year should gradually merge into a limited monarchy, flushed with Weekly paper for six months 7 P. M. power and fortified by patronage; or, we must fly to the Subscriptions to the Daily for less than two, to the Semi-10 P. M. other fatal alternative-we must dissolve the Union itself | Weekly for less than four, or to the Weekly for less than six to recover our liberties; that Union, which is so necessary months, will not be received. to preserve our tranquillity at home and our peace abroad; If not paid within the first six months, the Daily paper Embossed enamelled Cards, tinted and plain, beautifully polished, that Union, which ought to be as dear to us as "the ruddy | will be $12, the Semi-Weekly $6, and the Weekly $2 50 a | with elegant designs as borders. dreps which warm our hearts." In a word, the government must be administered according | Subscribers may discontinue their papers at any time by to the good old JEFFERSONIAN standard. In this respect we paying for the time they have received them; but not with-

are happy to know that we shall but carry out the deliber- | out. and when the latitudinous constructionists of the federal considered subscribers until they order the paper to be stop- Double size of Large, school stood at the helm of affairs. A powerful National | ped, and pay arrearages. What limit, indeed, was there to be to the encroachments notes of any specie-paying bank will be received. and the "iron will" of Andrew Jackson-he came to redeem, panies it. by his vetoes, the constitution from violation, and the country from abuse. He strangled the Monster Bank; he set | not be taken out of the post office. limits to the wild schemes of Internal Improvements, and

But the federal party was not yet extinguished. Their extraordinary efforts in 1840 to defeat that able statesman Martin Van Buren, aided as they were by the vilest devices, and by the grossest abuses of the money power, contributed, again at the head of the government. It is not necessary Governor's Circle. paper, but it was acquired upon other theatres, much more standard, and we, too, come forward to support the princi- From F. R. Shunk, late Secretary of State and Superintendent of Comtion a fair, liberal, and efficient support. We will oppose a

We will support a fair and just revenue standard. This rate "With Mr. McKinney I have been long acquainted. He taught in miracles enough to astonish the foreign tourist amid all his sections." It is now hoped that the time is near at hand From Professor HENRY D. Rouens, of the University of Pennsylvania. improvement which pervades our States; the schools which of our government may safely defy all the illiberal criticisms given me the amplest proofs of his good attainments in Mathematics, structed in less than twenty years; the immense bodies of cessary funds to defray the economical expenses of the gov- willing to assume."

> that mutual deference and concession which the peculiarity cy as an instructor of youth. of our political situation rendered indispensable." They directly condemned the rash and meddlesome disposition on ful lines, that has wrought so many achievements here. Lib- tion in the efforts which will be made to secure to the Uniterty excites man to think for himself, to cast off antiquated ed States the undisturbed possession of Oregon. However can say with truth, that for a well belanced mind, good judgment prejudices, and to start in a new career of improvement. It much the late English journals may have pretended to dep- strong reasoning powers, and extensive attainments, in science and opens, besides, in this new country, as it were, a new asy- recate-however felly they may have ridiculed our right to general literature, I believe be is surpassed by few, if any, of his age, I'm to the oppressed of all nations, which, in despite of the "Native American" prejudices of the day, still continues to the American government. We feel assured that, in the "He is peculiarly fitted, I conceive, by taste, and habits, and edit to the American government. The feel assured that, in the large leading to the American government. invite other people to cultivate our lands, and contribute to settlement of this momentous question, nothing will be omitour progress. It is our free institutions, more than any other ted by the President of the United States which may be de- emiss, and special attention will be bestowed upon mathematics and cause, which are drawing "the course of empire" to the manded by a proper spirit of conciliation, and a due regard the physical sciences. to the rights and honor of our country.

seems to be the order of the day. Science is shooting forth this time transcending all others, is the question of ANNEX- to the above. in all directions. Art is obtaining the most brilliant tri- ATION OF TEXAS. It is scarcely necessary for us to pledge Latin, Greek, Mathematics, &c., umphs over NATURE. The age is advancing with the impet- all our efforts to the final consummation of that great quesnosity of steam, to which it is so much indebted for its pro- tion. None have been more zealously devoted than ourgress. Commerce is expanding her wings under the impulse | selves to the admission of the LONE STAR into our constellaof a new and stronger principle. There seems, indeed, to tion. Should any difficulties occur on the part of her govbe no limit to the progress of discovery; and it is in the ernment, or of the wines of the United States, we shall June 16, 1845. 5

For ourselves we are prepared to resist them now, and away the highest offices of the REPUBLIC -and that every that if they ship by this line, and consign to Messis Clarkson & Co. this moral lesson effective, and, for this purpose, we go to apolis in 12 hours. Passengers can be assured of an immediate conone hand, and consolidation on the other, being the extremes Washington to carry out the pledge under which Mr. Polk nection with the steamboats, either for Cincinnation Louisville, as arwhich are to be carefully avoided, the constitution was so has been elected, and to keep our party united. We go, of rangements have been made which will prevent all possibility of a framed, and the government should be so administered, as, course, with the firm determination to avoid all premature delay, making the trip from Indianapolis to Cincinnati, or Louisville, whilst the federal power exercises its legitimate functions, contests for the succession. Pledged to no candidate, com- in one day it should sacredly respect the RIGHTS of the States and the mitted to no clique, prejudiced again t no portion of our parrights of the people. The federal government must, there- ty, anxions to extend the right hand of fellowship to every S. E. Corner Third and Walnut Streets, fore, ever remember, that it has only certain limited powers, section, and to every honest republican, we go to our post of which are either specified in the constitution itself, or which duty, not to disturb, but to unite-not to offend, but to conpowers. It cannot pass these limits with impunity. It can- our best guides the principles of the constitution, and the in-office for four years only. He is no doubt anxious to testify ders for Tohacco, Snuff and Cigars, at the shortest notice. 4-6m It would never do, indeed, to give an unimited power to his gratitude to his country for the signal honor which she Playing, Visiting, and Blank Cards.

$10 00 for less than a year, 50 cts.

ate wishes of the present President of the United States. Those who subscribe for a year, and do not at the time of | Double size of small, The time once was, when a very different rule prevailed, subscribing order a discontinuance at the end of it, will be

BANK had triumphed over the Constitution, and threatened All payments to be made in advance. Those who have other sizes cut to order of any of the foregoing qualities. our very liberties. A gigantic system of INTERNAL In- not an opportunity of paying otherwise, may remit by mail, Mourning Cards of various sizes made to order. PROVEMENTS was projected by the general government. An at our risk, postage paid. The postmaster's certificate of Gold bordered Cards, do unequal and oppressive Tarter of duties was established. such remittance shall be a sufficient receipt therefor. The Enamelled sheets cap size, and 20 by 24 inches. and excesses of the government, if these principles prevail- No attention will be given to any order unless the money. Pearl, ed in its administration? But thanks to the superior genius or a postmaster's certificate that it has been remitted, accom-

JOHN P. HEISS.

Washington, April, 1845.

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES

and Measures. A simple and frugal Government, confined within strict Constitutional limits. A strict construction of the Constitution, and no assumption of doubtful powers. No National Bank to swindle the laboring popula-

No connection between the government and banks. A Diplomacy, asking for nothing but what is cleary right and submitting to nothing wrong. No public debt, either by the General Government, r by the States, except for objects of urgent neces-No assumption by the General Government of the ebts of the States, either directly or indirectly, by a istribution of the proceeds of the public lands.

A Revenue tariff, discriminating in favor of the oor consumer instead of the rich capitalist. No extensive system of Internal Improvement by the General Government, or by the States.

A constitutional barrier against improvident State

The honest payment of our debts and the sacred reservation of the public faith. A gradual return from a paper credit system.

No grants of exclusive charters and privileges, by pecial legislation, to banks. No connexion between Church and State.

No proscription for honest opinions.

Fostering aid to public education. A "progressive" reformation of all abuses.

PUBLIC NOTICES.

INDIANAPOLIS HIGH SCHOOL. with the singular condition of the country, to place them N the 18th of June will be opened the First Session of the Indifor us to recapitulate the struggles which have since ensued, 1 "The Trustees, anxious to establish a permanent school of a high Literary Institution." From the Rev. Dr. DE WITT, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

From the Trustees of the Harrisburg Academy. "Mr. J. Chambers McKinney was an Assistant Teacher in the the part of the abolitionists to interfere with the peculiar From Mr. Alfred Armstrone, Principal of the Harrisdourg Academy. institutions of one portion of the confederacy, which is o'Mr. McKinner was associated with myself in the business of It is principally the influence of the free institutions we strongly calculated to distract our public councils, and to cre- teaching in Belletonte, and afterwards in this place, where I have

"I have had a long personal acquaintance with Mr. McKinney, and

Terms, per quarter of twelve weeks:

JOHN H. BRADLEY, J.P. CHAPMAN. Trustens. SETONW. NOREIS.

TRANSPORTATION NOTICE.

Shippers will find their property come out in much better order East Britton, 'I have a good mind to take you in hand myself, and punish you well for the villainous trick.'

For the purpose of resisting so formidable an epposition, by this than by any other line, which do not employ the Portable or objects to which each of them was best adapted.

For the purpose of resisting so formidable an epposition, by this than by any other line, which do not employ the Portable or objects to which each of them was best adapted.

Was conveyed to each, as to enable them to accomplish the we shall space no honorable effort to keep our own party to specify the payor, the stating the name of the payor, the stating the payor, the payor, the stating the payor, the payor the payor that the payor the

> RAIL ROAD LINE OF STAGES. J. P. VOORHEES & CO.

MEYER & BECKER. Cincinnati, Ohio. may be "necessary and proper" for carrying out the specified ciliate; yet, in every case, to discharge our duty, taking for Cigars, Tobacco, Snuff, &c. &c. Western Dealers are espefally invited to examine their stock before purchasing elsewhere. They sell at the lowest city prices, and feel warranted in saving Mr. Polk has publicly declared his intention to remain in that they can give satisfaction to all customers. They will fill all or

Cards heretofore furnished by the establishment; and that orders for

Harry VIII. do Decaturs, Merry Andrews, Highlanders, No. 1, Star and Marble Back, \ Enamelled, Ivory, and Fearl surface Cards, as per-4,00 15, Ivory and ? 11, Ivory and Pearl sur 2,50 Pearl surface, II, Enamelled

Small blanks, (playing size,) No. 1

Ivory Surface, Also, Railroad and Steamboat Tickets made to order, of any or of different colors, as desired.

The subscriber invites all Editors in the U. States and Canada, who are disposed to take their pay in Cards, and who will send him a copy of their paper containing this advertisement, to insert it for three New York, April 26.